Dear friend

Mon 21th 87

After the salutation off our Dear love to the 11. the truth. This is to let the know that we have had a letter from Tho. Langhorne and he tells by that thou was on off the paper off our land. So we have concluded the bargain with Tho. Langhorne for that 2800 aker off land that you valued 80 pound rent money. we desire on kind more off the we have sent a con bay bill off fall to Tho. Langhorne and we have directed it to the to give to Tho. Langhorne as our order and deed and we desire the upon the delivery off the deed we have ordered that Tho is to pay by 40 pound sterling money in England and the remainder to satisfy the John and Robert Dobe and send by our order bill from Tho. Langhorne with care not that we haveanny mistrust off our Dear friend Tho. Langhorne but we think it will be more stronger in law to Tho. if it be delivered with two witnesses to him and his son William for is much with the King and is well with the rest off friends and meetings is quiet and fearable only the sawney meeting is kept from by we have many good meetings blessed be god for ever my Dear love to thy wife and son and daughter so on to main thy friend in the blessed truth
